

Michael P. McMillan
President and CEO
The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, Inc.

Michael P. McMillan is the President and CEO of The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, Inc., (ULSTL) a nonprofit organization providing social services to the Metropolitan St. Louis community since 1918. The St. Louis Urban League was the first affiliate of the National Urban League movement to be awarded a Five-Star Rating which it holds to this day. The Urban League’s mission is “to assist African Americans and others throughout the region in securing economic self-reliance, social equality and civil rights.” Each year, the Urban League serves more than 125,000 residents through programming supporting economic opportunity, educational excellence, community empowerment, civil rights and advocacy.

President McMillan has grown the agency from a $17 million annual budget in 2013 to $35 million in 2021 with 20 locations, 55 programs and 350 staff. President McMillan recently completed a merger with the historic Grace Hill Settlement House resulting in a combined $38 million infusion for Head Start/Early Head Start and the addition of a Women’s Business Center now poised to provide support for nearly 100 minority and women-owned businesses in just one year.

President McMillan in 2020, completed acquisition of a historic former Sears department store in the heart of the African-American community and has begun a $20 million restoration project creating a new Regional Headquarters that will serve as a hub for critical services to the 125,000 clients served annually. The headquarters will also include a regional cultural arts center, medical and legal clinics, a hydroponic farm and a food pantry.

President McMillan mobilized a record number of volunteers and public and private partners to execute the largest and most efficient COVID-19 emergency relief effort in the state raising $4.2 million and providing food, masks, gloves, sanitization supplies, and PPE to more than 90,000 families in 27 large-scale relief operations.

In response to the crisis in Ferguson, President McMillan created the Save Our Sons program in St. Louis County to help over 1,000 African-American men find jobs and hosted the Urban League’s largest job fair in its history at St. Louis Community College - Florissant Valley with over 5,000 participants. President McMillan envisioned and stewarded the building of the Urban League Community Empowerment Center of Ferguson on the site of a former Quick Trip convenience store that was burned down during the crisis. The Ferguson Community Empowerment Center opened in 2017 and houses the Save Our Sons program along with other critical social service partners. Also, in July 2017, President McMillan and the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis hosted the largest National Urban League Conference in history with nearly 25,000 in attendance.

Prior to his role with the Urban League, President McMillan had a distinguished career as an elected official in the City of St. Louis. He was the youngest person elected as a member of the Board of Aldermen and as License Collector in the city's history. During his tenure as Alderman, President McMillan nurtured and led public-private partnerships resulting in $1.25 billion of development in his district focused on mixed use housing, retail development, institutional advancement, new and improved education institutions, and overall neighborhood stabilization.

President McMillan has received hundreds of awards and commendations from various organizations and was recently inducted into the International Civil Rights Walk of Fame as its youngest member. He was also named one of the Ebony Power 100 Most Influential African Americans in the United States. Additionally, he is the recipient of the 2013 International Trumpet Award for Community Service; the Whitney M. Young and the John Mack Leadership Awards from the National Urban League; the Chairman's Award presented by the St. Louis Minority Supplier Development Council and a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Montford Point Marines.

President McMillan is a member of Boards of Directors of the following companies and organizations: The St. Louis Zoological Commission, Enterprise Bank, Harris Stowe State University, The US Bank Advisory Board, The St. Louis Sports Commission, Heat Up St. Louis, Inc. (Cool Down St. Louis), The St. Louis Community Foundation, The Municipal Opera, the Greater St. Louis Area Council-Boy Scouts of America and the Workforce Investment Board of St. Louis County. He was recently named the 2020 Person of the Year by The St. Louis American Newspaper.

President McMillan is a graduate of Saint Louis University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in African American Studies and a minor in Political Science with an emphasis in Finance. Additionally, McMillan is an Eisenhower Fellow, an American Council of Young Political Leaders Alumnus and member of Eta Boulè Chapter of Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity, Inc., 100 Black Men of Metropolitan St. Louis and St. Alphonsus "Rock" Catholic Church.